

FEBRUARY IS BLACK HISTORY MONTH

THE BERWYN LIBRARY

BOOKS ABOUT AFRICAN AMERICANS

B/ANG	A Song Flung Up to Heaven
B/JAC	Harriet Jacobs
B/MAL	The Autobiography of Malcom X
323.40924/KIN	Bearing the Cross
920.009296/BLA	Black Leaders of the Nineteenth Century
323.1/WEX	The Civil Rights Movement
323.092/OLS	Freedom's Daughter
323.1/196073/KIN	Freedom Song

WEBSITES OF INTEREST

THE ORIGINS OF BLACK HISTORY MONTH

<http://inventors.about.com/library/inventors/blblackhistorymonth.htm>

AFRICAN AMERICAN COWBOYS

An interesting feature from National Geographic

<http://www.nationalgeographic.com/history/>

ROOTS EXHIBIT

The History Channel provides an excellent critique the TV miniseries Roots.

<http://www.historychannel.com/exhibits/blackhist/main.html>

NATIONAL CIVIL RIGHTS MUSEUM

Take a virtual tour and learn about the major events of the Civil Rights Movement

<http://www.mecca.org/~crights/cyber.html>

AFRO AMERICAN ALMANAC

This site provides information about famous African American people and events.

<http://www.toptags.com/aama/index.htm>
